Based on a news item "police book garaged cars" suo motu cognizance was taken on 13 July 2017 in respect of two cars which had allegedly been booked for violation of traffic signals while the cars according to the owners were lying in their respective garage. Enquiry was entrusted with the investigation wing of the Commission. In respect of the car belonging to Mr Ghose the Deputy Commissioner of police, traffic department, by his letter dated 21st of March 2018 asked for particulars about the vehicle which could not be arranged and therefore could not be submitted.

Regarding the car belonging to Miss datta the enquiry could not be proceeded with due to refusal on the part of her father to cooperate.

In the circumstances there is no other alternative but to drop the matter which is also the view of the honourable member. The matter is thus disposed of.

The Ld. Registrar is directed to upload the order.
