BJP leader Sayantan Basu today threatened TMC sup-porters with dire conse-quences if they attacked any BJP leaders or supporters. He was addressing a protest rally at Curzon Gate compl-plex in Burdwan this afternoon.

"We won't like to attend the phone calls of our cadres saying that they are being assaulted by the Trinamul Congress supporters. Instead, we would get inspired with the calls made to inform us that two to four Trinamul Congress supporters who had come to unleash our men are being killed," said BJP's state secretary Sayantan Basu.

Mr Basu added: "You have heard that a firebrand Trina-mul Congress district leader was given harsh treatment by our men. I rather insist you to unleash attack on the Tri-namul Congress leaders and their henchmen in Burdwan who are causing inconve-nience to the BJP cadres and supporters indiscriminate-ly. STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
KRISHNAGAR, 22 NOVEMBER

A student of BA first year allegedly committed suicide by hanging from a tree near her house with her mother's saree after being scolded for failing to withdraw money from an ATM.

The incident occurred at Rail colony in Math-narayanpur under the juris-diction of Dhantala police sta-tion in Nadia today.

Police officials said, the deceased named as Purnima Mondol (19), was a student of Bogula Srikrishna College.

According to local resi-dents, Purnima's father, who is a garment trader in Odisha, had called his wife yesterday to withdraw money from a bank ATM for payment to a money lender. Accordingly, when a money lender went to their house, the deceased's mother asked her daughter, Purnima, to go to the near-by ATM and withdraw money from it.

Purnima went to the ATM with her father's debit card, but she could not withdraw any money as she entered wrong pin number for three times. As a result, the card was automatically blocked. When she returned with empty hands and explained every-thing to her mother, she scolded her.

This morning her body was found hanging from a tree near her house. A pall of gloom descended soon after the death news spread in the locality.

Police officers said the body has been sent to a near-by hospital for autopsy.
