On 6th June, 2020 a news was published in Ananda Bazar Patrika with regard to threatening upon a foreigner lady. It was reported that the said foreigner lady was staying at Kolkata for the last seven years along with her husband. It was further reported that a person threatened the said foreigner lady by saying that India was not for the foreigners and if she did not leave India then she would be raped. It was also reflected in the said news that the matter was reported to the police,

The Hon'ble Commission took cognizance over the matter and a report was called for from D.C.P., Central Division, Kolkata.

It appears from the report that the said foreigner lady namely Mr. Chelsea McGill and her husband Tathagata Neogi were contacted and they pointed out the alleged person who was intercepted by police and it <sup>was</sup> revealed that his name was Md. Shahanwaz. During enquiry it was <sup>further</sup> revealed that the said person was not mentally stable and due to such reason the aforesaid lady and her husband were not willing to lodge any complaint against him.

It is further reported that the alleged person was taken to S.S.K.M. Hospital and he was referred to Institute of Psychiatry. It is further reported that the alleged person was advised to attend outdoor of the said hospital. It is further reported that since the aforesaid lady and her husband have not lodged any complaint against alleged person, no legal step is initiated against him.

The accused person was identified and taken into custody. He however appeared to be mentally unstable. For that reason the victim refused to lodge any complaint. The accused was subsequently taken for psychiatric treatment to the OPD and thereafter was left at his residence.

Considering the facts and circumstances the file is closed.
